

A Cold Night in June: Falklands Battle of Mount Longdon

By Sergeant Robert Lofthouse

CreateSpace Independent Publishing Platform. Paperback. Book Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. Paperback. 300 pages. Dimensions: 8.9in. x 6.0in. x 0.9in. The complete Falklands experience of a young 3 Para machinegun crew, based on accounts given during veterans organised battlefield tours of Mount Longdon and other sites. Sergeant Rob Lofthouse has served in Iraq, and formed part of the Falklands defence force in the 1990s. The prologue details a gunners very first experience of combat. A real soldiers voice, combining dry gallows-style humour with a very real and brutal account of the conflict. Review from Warrant Officer Dan Mills, author of Sniper One; In the past, I have had the honour of fighting alongside Rob Lofthouse. Not only has he managed to eerily portray accurately the events of that cold, long hard night on Mount Longdon in June 1982, but he has also effectively transported the reader there, as though they landed at San Carlos alongside 3 Para. The description and portrayal is uncanny, and having spoken to many soldiers who were on that artillery-swept summit and the hard fought over approaches to it, Rob is spot on. The build-up and tension leading up to the action is intense, and...
