It was arranged that the first experiments should be made for the purpose of eliciting some of the phenomena of clairvoyance, or mental vision. For this purpose an exhibition was made of various prints, large and small, likenesses of distinguished persons, c, with which my friend had provided himself from his own house. With some of these the front parlor was hung, before we entered it from the back room, while the smaller prints were thrown upon the centre-table. It must here be borne in mind, in the first place, what has already been several times remarked, that the patient is blind. Her eyelids, moreover, were entirely closed; in addition to which, cotton batts were placed over her eyes, and confined by a pair of green spectacles. It would, therefore, have been impossible for her to see--or rather, any other person would have...
