Health food Discover the health micro habits that can transform your health and your energy! This age presents new challenges and possibilities for mankind. While we have technology to thank for new opportunities for work and for free time, we have also acquired unhealthy habits, such as spending unprecedented amounts of our lives in a seated position. What we can do is incorporate ancient practices such as meditation, Yoga, Qi Gongm massaging and simple diet adjustments in to our lives. This takes little time, and is very easy and absolutely do-able for anyone. This book will show you how to make small adjustments with minimal effort to affect maximum results using small diet changes and short exercise routines. As an added bonus, you will learn some massage techniques to help your body to detox itself, and also some techniques you can practice with a partner for fun, well-being and relaxation. This is a...
