El Pilton Publishing Co., United States, 2013. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 216 x 140 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Nothing is as it seems. The mysterious methodical and brutal slaying of five prominent Real Estate Developers left their prestigious communities and law enforcement baffled beyond belief. The killer evaded police so swiftly that they considered he may be one of their own. With the media, the Mayor of Bloomfield Hills, the governor and the FBI crawling down the backs of local authorities, it was critical that they solved these cases and fast. The killer seemed two steps ahead of law enforcement until a Forensic Pathologist noticed the eerie similarities from a murder that occurred six years earlier. After tracking down the lead, police soon realized that the suspect in the murder six years prior was one of the first developers found dead in his home - with a single gunshot wound to the head and his body dismembered. Who, within this prominent community was a killer? Who would have the motive and accessibility to murder these powerful people and get away with it? Plastered on the TV screen was the gorgeous face of the infamous Mrs. Deveraux, who had announced that she too feared for her life. But when the focus of the investigation leads back to Mrs. Deveraux, the police soon suspect they have a lady serial killer who will stop at nothing to get what she wants. Was Mrs. Deveraux fearing for her life or should the community be fearful of her? With new found forensic evidence, the investigation takes a stunning turn and Mrs. Deveraux finds herself scrambling for the truth. As a web of corruption, destruction and terror unravels within this twisted mystifying saga, Mrs. Deveraux anxiously tries to put...
