

What About Me?: Strategies for Teaching Misunderstood Learners

By Christopher Lee, Rosemary Jackson

Heinemann USA, United States, 2001. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 225 x 163 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. With Faking It, Christopher Lee and Rosemary Jackson changed the way we view special learners, offering a moving account of Lee's struggle and ultimate triumph over dyslexia. Now, with What About Me?, Lee combines his special insight with Jackson's expertise as a special education trainer to offer specific help to teachers and parents of other misunderstood learners. What About Me? is a practical yet personal book on how to help special learners grow into self-sufficient, responsible adults who can recognize their strengths and manage their weaknesses. To that end, Lee and Jackson offer specific guidance on: what you can do and where you can go if your student has a learning disability what it's like to perceive words and numbers differently how to help students with learning disabilities become creative writers how to maximize memory skills how to encourage kinesthetic and tactile learners to thrive in the classroom how to recognize, deal with, and honor personal survival skills how to help students develop self-advocacy skills how assistive technology can help where to find more information on learning disabilities...
