Although their lock of high-class and rare prints is so large that it is impracticable to enumerate them, a handsome catalogue of several hundred examples, most of them original etchings, has been issued by Messrs. Keppel Co. It is beautifully illustrated with reproductions of some of the principal etchings, and tie notes which are appended furnish much valuable information respecting the different etchers and their works. The catalogue is sold for a dime, although its actual cost to the publishers is more than double that amount. - Mail and Express. The publishers invite all visitors to call and examine their very large collection of the best works at moderate prices. They make a specialty of the rarer etchings and engravings, such as cannot easily be found elsewhere. Correspondence is invited. Etchings will be sent on approval to any part of the United States on receipt of introduction or reference. Artistic framing a specialty.
