It was only by good fortune that he was at home, and that he had no more engrossing work on hand than the correction of a batch of proofs. The tools of the trade of the litterateur were therefore scarcely appar ent. The room he was seated in was half library, half drawing-room. Unlike the average apartment that upper New York makes a home of, here all was spacious and on a large scale. The visitor s eyes must have hinted at something of this sort as they strayed here and there, for Mr. Champlin had at once a word to say about it as he pointed to a lazy man s chair. This was one of the first apartment houses built up here, he said, and is on a somewhat larger scale than those now constructed. When...
